

The UCAS process 2009

what happens next?

Choices

- Subject
- University

Personal Statement 1st Draft

1st of July 2009:

Oxbridge, Medicine and law to Mr Cheshire

All other subjects to form tutors

Thursday the 20th of August

- Results Day

- What happens if AS results do not go to plan?

Thursday afternoon meetings for students who:

- Wish to change subjects
- Fail to obtain 3 D grades

Year 13 Induction Day: Friday 11th of September

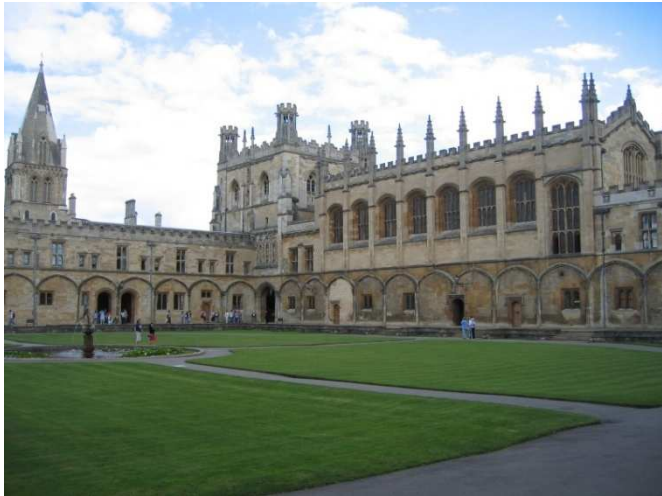

Activities:

- Tour of the new Blandford street building
- Welcome event with the new year 12
- Higher Education and Careers guidance: All online applications must be completed on this day except the updated personal statement.

UCAS application Deadlines

- OXBRIDGE, MEDICINE AND Law

Friday 18th of September (At the end of the first week back)

- References will then be written by Mr Cheshire

Deadlines

- Psychology, History, English, Drama

Friday 25 of September 2009

- References will be written by form Tutors

Deadlines...

- All other subjects...

Friday 2nd of October

- References will be written by the form tutor.

Why are the deadlines so early?

1. Universities often fill up courses on a first come first served basis.
2. Students will receive offers for university earlier (minimising worrying time).
3. The UCAS application process will finish early minimising disruption of year 13 studies.

Key Dates

- 1st of July: Personal Statements
- 20th of August: Results day
- 11th of September: UCAS application Day
- 18th of September: Oxbridge Medicine and Law application deadline.
- 25th of September: Psychology, History, English, Dram Deadlines.
- 2nd of October: All subjects deadline

Post application

- Offers: Once a student has had a reply from each university, they then decide on their:
 - 1st Choice
 - 2nd Choice
- Finance: Needs to be filled in by students during March/ April
- University accommodation
- Preparation for university parents evening

The Key Date

Thursday 19th of August

A level results day. Students need to be in school that day!