Most large grant making charities exclude individuals, however the following, smaller trusts and foundations give grants to individuals.

You can also find out if your local Mayor has an appropriate fund to apply to.

If any of these trusts have changed their eligibility guidelines, please do let us know. We do not re-check the list prior each expedition. Thank you. meganfelton@raleigh.org.uk

Trusts where there is no restriction on area

Reg Gilbert International Youth Friendship Trust (GIFT)

Reg Gilbert
67 Nunney Road
Frome
Somerset BA1 4LE

The aim of the trust is to help with the personal development of young people by assisting them in gaining firsthand experience of a different culture, thereby developing friendships with, and an understanding of, people of that culture. The more applicants can show they will have a clear association with indigenous people, the more likely they are to get a bursary.

Eligibility

UK residents who are aged 14 to 25 and are visiting a developing country on a trip lasting at least four weeks. Applicants must be unable to afford the cost, be planning to live with an indigenous family in the host country as an ordinary member of the family, and be aiming to develop friendship. The trust stresses that there must be an indigenous homestay element within the programme to be eligible for any funding
